

School Days

The School House still sits on the Hill

How long can this be said Till boards decay and structures fall and the oak trees are dead

1. The rickety house washed clean of pain with windows shattered all Reminds me of the Asher House
How long before the fall?

2. Another year has passed away
How fleeting is the time
Another term has passed and gone
I was filled with joy sublime

Vacation time has now arrived How swift the days pass by Nine long months that seems so short is true that time can fly.

3. It is sad to think that from this school nine pupils will be leaving It is sad to ~~hear~~^{hear} the sophs lament and to see the Juniors grieving.

4. No more will Elmer toil with books
In getting up his lessons
No more will Raymond study hard To him it seems a blessing

5. It is sad to think that Billie No more will be and Marie Mc Cartty forever more may spend her time in town.
